Doubt as to Wellman's Right to Subpoens Lexow Witnesses.

Accusers of Policemen Said to Be Harrassed by Summonses.

Many Refuse to Obey Them by Advice of Counsel.

It is hinted in connection with the Police Board's investigation of police men accused before the Lexow Commit tee, that the summoning of witnesses to appear before Mr. Wellman for examination, is done with a view to harrassing and intimidating them. It is alleged in the first place that Mr. Wellman has no legal authority to issue subpoenas, and that very fact is used to substantiate the allegations.

Half a dozen persons who had been summoned to the District-Attorney's office on Mr. Wellman's so-called subpoenas, to be examined prior to giving testimony before the Police Commissiontestimony before the Police Commissioners in the pending trials of the accused officers, waited in Mr. Wellman's private office all this morning.

The counsel to the Police Board did not put in an appearance although a number of other people were waiting to see him. Some of the waiting witnesses were Bohemian liquor-dealers, who had testified before the Lexyw Committee that they had paid money to the Pantata of the Harlem Precinet for the privelege of violating the Excise law.

There were one or two women, and Police Capt. O'Connor, and a ward man or two seen wandering about the corridors of the General Seasions Building. The latter would not say whether they were waiting to see Mr. Welman or not.
